Sex Offense Issues

affecting change in Colorado's sex offense laws, policies, and attitudes

How Do We Piece It All Together?

$100,000 of Tax Payer money has provided good answers!

An External Evaluation of the SOMB's Standards and Guidelines was submitted on January 3, 2014. It puts the pieces together.

Why did we need an "External Evaluation" ?

The Evaluation states

The image of all men with a history of having committed a sex offense as perpetually highly dangerous, barely contained by never ending treatment and intensive supervision was formed in Colorado many years ago based on a very limited research available at that time. Even though key members of the SOMB are aware that this is not accurate, the image still appears to pervade the Standards and Guidelines.

We have the pieces to the puzzle . . .

They point the way to real reform.
