Notes											They have two programs at this facility and work closely with Denver parole. First program accepts everyone but is a night shelter only-check-in at 4:30pm and you must leave by 8a.m. And doors lock at 11p.m. The other program costs $90 a week and is more upscale in a dormitory setting and always has a waitlist, requires alcohol and drug testing and you are assigned a case manager towards self-sufficiency. Both programs involve a case plan and you must stay sober to remain there. You must provide a legal name and DOB to either program prior to acceptance and DOC has assisted with placement in these programs through the Denver Parole Office.
